

Representative Jon Echols

★ OMPAC ENDORSES ★

JON ECHOLS

REPUBLICAN

— FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL —

After careful vetting of the Republican candidates for Attorney General, the Oklahoma Medical Political Action Committee (OMPAC), the political arm of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, has voted to endorse State Representative Jon Echols in the August runoff election.

+ Committed to access to care.

⚕ Proven pro-medicine, pro-science voting record.

🛡 Stood up for quality healthcare as a State Representative.

🛡 Committed to continuing that record as Attorney General.

As a state Representative, Jon Echols proved he was pro-medicine and pro-science, standing up for quality healthcare. He will continue that tradition as Oklahoma's next Attorney General.

★ VOTE AUGUST 25 ★
REPUBLICAN RUNOFF

About the OMPAC endorsement process: Incumbents are rated on their past support of OSMA, while new candidates receive a survey regarding their stance on medical issues. Following a review of survey answers and past support, OMPAC's board met to review and determine which candidates will receive support.